

Mark Davis, Esq.

Mark Davis was drawn to law because he had a strong desire to help people in need. He also wanted to contribute in a positive way to communities and society at large. So, practicing disability law was a natural fit as it provides an opportunity to assist some of the most deserving in our communities. Mark decided to work at Martin Law because “The firm cares deeply for their clients. With that as a primary focus, we have a positive, pragmatic work environment that enables us to do just that!”

Mark was a “military brat” which means that he moved often during his childhood and adolescence. He spent some time in Germany but spent most of his youth in Spain. This experience has helped him tremendously with his Spanish speaking clients. Mark now lives in New Jersey and commutes to our Philadelphia office.

Mark is a huge animal fan rescuing 6 dogs and 3 cats over the years. Now Mark has a new rescue dog, a Doberman named Dawkins. When Mark is not at work, he likes to get outdoors as much as possible. He enjoys walks in old city, going for hikes, and trips to the beach. But above all, he loves to catch up with friends and family to recharge on the weekends.
