

Steve Ryan, Esq.

Steve's desire to help people inspired him to practice law and represent injured workers. Steve chose Martin Law because it is the premier law firm representing injured workers in Pennsylvania. "In my view, there is not a stronger and more reliable presence for injured workers in Pennsylvania." Steve works in Martin Law's Harrisburg Office and travels to assist clients throughout the state.

Steve grew up in Brooklyn, New York, and is a big New York Mets fan. He fell in love with the team in 1986 when his mother "scored" tickets to the World Series in Shea Stadium. She was working at a deli counter in New Jersey when a customer came in and offered the tickets. It started a lifelong love of baseball and the Mets. When Steve is not at work, he spends most of his time playing with his kids and training in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

To learn more about Attorney Steve Ryan, please visit <https://www.paworkinjury.com/attorney/steve-ryan/>.