

Attorney Wilson part of faculty at “tough” CLE Event

Martin Law partner Matt Wilson served as a faculty member for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Continuing Legal Education (CLE) program entitled “Tough Problems in Workers’ Compensation 2013” on Tuesday, April 9th at the CLE Conference Center in the Wanamaker Building in Philadelphia.

The program covered key areas in Workers’ Compensation Law, including:

- Mastering the ins & outs of compensation for medical treatment
- Establishing liability and coverage for injuries in today’s mobile workforce
- A review of recent cases
- The judges’ perspective
- Fee review

Attendees are eligible for 4 Pennsylvania CLE credits.

Don’t Want to Travel? Take the Course Live on the Web! This course is offered via live webcast simultaneously with the satellite broadcast on April 16, 2013.

For more information or to register, click here.