

Jenna King Nominated to PBA's Workers' Compensation Council

(Philadelphia, PA) – Jenna King, Esq., our newest workers' compensation associate, was nominated to the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Council during its May 2020 meeting. Ms. King will serve a three-year term on the Workers' Compensation Council. Ms. King joins Martin Law partners George Martin and Matthew Wilson who have been council members since 1987 and 2007, respectively.

Ms. King is an active member in both the Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Bar Associations. In 2019, she was appointed as the Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section's Diversity and Inclusion Committee. In the same year she became the Young Lawyers Division Liaison for the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section. In the past couple of years, Ms. King has become a frequent presenter of Continuing Legal Education courses throughout Pennsylvania. In 2015, Ms. King earned her law degree from Widener University School of Law, where she founded and served as the Inaugural President of the Youth Court League. She earned her bachelor's degree in criminal justice with a legal studies & analysis minor from Widener University in 2011.

Martin Law LLC:

With eighteen attorneys and seven offices in Bristol, Allentown, Reading, Malvern, Sunbury, and Philadelphia, Martin Law is one of the largest firms in Pennsylvania of its kind, focusing solely on Workers' Compensation, Social Security Disability, Long Term Disability and Veterans' Benefits.