

Martin Law Named One of the Top 150 Social Security Disability Law Firms in the Nation

We are proud to announce that Martin Law's Social Security Disability Department has been nationally recognized by the Advocates, Counselors, and Representatives for the Disabled (ACRD) as one of the Top 150 Social Security Disability Firms in 2024. This prestigious recognition is a powerful testament to the tireless dedication, compassion, and excellence demonstrated by our entire team.

The ACRD, working directly with the Social Security Administration, has developed an unbiased, comprehensive ranking of the Top 500 firms across the country. To be named among the top 150 is not only an honor—it reflects the significant impact we've made in the lives of our clients and within the broader legal community.

"I am incredibly proud of our department and the dedicated, compassionate, tireless, and talented professionals in it," said Attorney Mark Davis, who leads our Social Security Disability team. "We are committed to serving and representing our very deserving clients and we are committed to the programs that save lives in which we represent them. Every person in our department does incredibly meaningful, hard work on a daily basis and I could not be more thankful for every single person and everything they do. We are privileged to represent our clients at a time in their lives when they are most vulnerable and deserving of our representation. For these reasons, we at Martin Law are truly humbled and honored in being recognized by the ACRD as a top disability law firm.”
