

Martin Law Partner Amit Shah, Esq. Inducted as a Fellow of the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers in the Class of 2026

We're proud to share that Amit Shah, Esq., Partner at Martin Law, has been inducted as a Fellow of the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers (CWCL). His term officially began on April 18th, 2026.

The College of Workers' Compensation is a national organization that recognizes excellence among workers' compensation legal professionals. Its fellows are honored as distinguished leaders within the workers' compensation legal community. They are recognized among their peers, the bar, the bench, and the public as lawyers of high integrity, expertise, ethics, and character. This is remarkable commendation and a testament to Amit's relentless dedication to advocating for injured workers across Pennsylvania.

Please join us in congratulating Amit on this well-earned honor!
