

MARTIN LAW

THE LAW FIRM FOR INJURED WORKERS

Workers' Compensation • Social Security Disability • Long-Term Disability • Veterans' Benefits

AMIT J. SHAH is a partner at Martin Law and focuses his practice exclusively on representing injured workers in Pennsylvania. In 2004, Mr. Shah earned his law degree from the Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, where he was a member of the Minority Law Student Association. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Shah worked at a boutique defense firm handling workers' compensation litigation in Pennsylvania. In 2007, Mr. Shah joined Martin Law and is currently a partner. He is a member of the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association, Pennsylvania Association for Justice, Pennsylvania Bar Association, and the Philadelphia Bar Association. Mr. Shah is certified as a specialist in the practice of workers' compensation law by the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Section on Workers' Compensation Law as authorized by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.*

In January 2015, Mr. Shah became an ex officio member of the Public Interest Law Center of Philadelphia. In 2017, Mr. Shah served as co-chair of the Workers' Compensation Section of the Philadelphia Bar Association. In 2022, Mr. Shah was elected to the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Council where he currently serves as the secretary. Mr. Shah was recently appointed as a co-author of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Workers' Compensation Practice and Procedure Manual, which is known among attorneys and judges as the "bible" on workers' compensation law. Mr. Shah is the committee chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Fall Section Meeting, which is one of the largest Continuing Legal Education courses in Workers' Compensation taught over a two-day period in Hershey, PA, which involves numerous judges and attorneys. Mr. Shah is a co-chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Workers' Compensation Bench and Bar Practices, a continuing legal education course for judges and attorneys. Mr. Shah has spoken at various seminars on the subject of Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation.

Mr. Shah has been designated by the National Football League's Players' Association (NFLPA) to represent the players of the Philadelphia Eagles. In addition, Mr. Shah is associated with the National Hockey League's Players' Association (NHLPA), Major League Baseball's Players' Association (MLBPA), Major League Soccer Players' (MLSPA), and Professional Hockey Players' Association (PHPA) to handle Workers' Compensation matters for professional athletes in Pennsylvania.
